We need a count for each activity:
Friday dinner cruise to The Fish _____
(number of people joining dinner cruise)

Saturday in water boat display   _____
(number of boats needing a slip)

Saturday parking lot display   _____
(Number of boats or engines for land display)

Saturday dinner at Margaritaville _____
(Number of people eating dinner)

Rendezvous with us at Lake of the Ozarks, Margaritaville Landshark. We will be following any state or local government guidelines regarding the virus at that time of year. Participation is FREE. No registration fee.

Meals will be paid individually on site, but we need a count for all activities. Thank you.

Our distribution list continues to grow and we are around 50 currently. This combined with Heartland Classics support and advertisement may lead to more boats registering than slips available. This is all the more reason to register early. We will take boats in order of post marked date received.

Not wanting to take your boat to dinner Friday? There are usually passenger seats available. If you prefer to ride along to dinner in another member's boat please list number of people here _____ . We will do our best to arrange.

If you have room in your boat to take others, please list number of seats available here _____.

Participants will have discounted pricing for rooms at our host hotel Margaritaville Lake Resort located at 494 Tan Tar A Drive, Osage Beach MO (573)-348-3131.

Now . . . the rest of the story . . .

  We highly encourage story boards on your displays with details. If you wish to have the story of your boat on a laminated card to keep for future show displays, write and send it with this registration. Suggestions to get you started: Where was this boat first delivered? What is her basic hull material? How is she powered? How and when did you or your family acquire her? What preservation or restoration work has been done?   . . .by whom? Why is she named _____? What adventures has she had?

(You may write the story on the back of this registration OR email the story to engstrom.mark@yahoo.com

Thanks! Can't wait to see you!
